

III. REMARKS

A. In the Specification:

The Markup Substitute Specification is presented with revision markings, pursuant to current amendment guidelines, to show changes relative to the immediate prior version thereof. A "clean" version of the Substitute Specification is also enclosed.

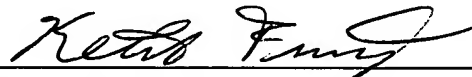

The changes to the specification are for clarification purposes, correction of formal matters, and improved conformance with the language in the new claims presented above.

The Substitute Specification does not present new matter into the application, and all changes are fully supported by the original application.

B. In the Claims:

New claims 5-27 are presented to more fully define the scope of the what Applicants believe to be their patentable invention, and are fully supported by the original application.

Respectfully submitted,
